The Meeting appears that a sum of money be made available to the Local Committee, for Quarterly meetings refreshments, said sum not to exceed 50$

A Concern was opened in regard to who owns the Cemetary, & Cemeteries at the rear of the Lynn Meeting House

The meeting heard some information from John Mader regards Undertaker Morse and Cemetary Commission, it was stated that recently a person named Breed was buried in the New Light Cemetary

The Questions that Came up and Were not answered Was 1- Who has authority to grant permission for Burials on the Cemetary? - And what Cemetary? And where is said Cemetary?

And If all of the Cemetaries were not under the direct and exclusive Authority of Lynn monthly meeting, Regarding burials, Who does own them?

And if Lynn Monthly Meeting does not have full jurisdiction over these Cemetaries, Could we become the exclusive owner and Directors of said Cemetary or Cemeteries by filing a legal Claim and giving legal notice as required by law

Because we are the only existing Authority of the Society of Friends in Connection with this Property, And as such ground be not the legal heirs.

Because of regardless of the Branch of Race Light, or Hicksite or Gurneyite, or any other Name, Were they not still included in the Same Society of Friends?

It Was Approved that John Cann should make Some enquires at the office of the Lynn Cemetery Commissioners to seek knowledge as to what Graves are in use and after a period of 35 years these Graves might be used, according to State laws and City Ordinances.

John Cann suggested that he secure a Copy of the Burial Plan of the Cemetery with all information pertaining to it and place said plan in a glass case for available information for all.

In our every day life, there are times when we feel an urge to meet with others in a special unity of worship, and thanksgiving for all the blessings and tender mercies that are so undeserved by all of us. It was to express this sense of worship and thanksgiving that the Thanksgiving Day services were planned, not for the meeting of worship but to continue through the meal. ONLY

The meeting for worship was small, but there was a sense of unity expressed not only by those who spoke outwardly but those whose worship and thanksgiving was expressed by no outward sign.

The meal which followed continued along this same thought, and many expressed their gratitude for having had a part in it. May we hope that another year will find others joining in this gathering of the Church.
